Sembi is a young girl, who likes singing and playing musical instruments. She goes to Hekima primary school. At home she has a set of three drums. Whenever she is free, she practices playing the drums.

One day, Sembi's parents called her and said. "Sembi, we are happy that you like playing the drums, but you cant play them all the time. There are other people in the neighborhood. Some of them do not like noise."

Sembi listened to the parents but she never stopped playing drums. She told her parents that she would be a good girl but would not stop doing what she loves most. She believed that after school she would become a famous musician.

There was a time when Sembi's parents decided to buy for her different musical instruments. When Sembi was from school, she found a guitar, a trumpet and a piano. Sembi was very happy. She thanked her parents for buying the musical instruments.
