SECTION A

LISTENING AND SPEAKING

I will read a story for you and I will ask you some questions.

One Saturday, I woke up and found my father washing his car. My mother was milking the cow and my big brothers were sweeping the compound. I wanted to help, so I decided to feed the chicken and water the flowers. My younger brother woke up and started wiping the dusty windows. In our family, we like sharing duties and responsibilities.

- a) What was the father doing that morning? (Learner responds)
- b) What was the mother doing? (Learner responds)
- c) What did the writer help in? (Learner responds)
- d) Tell me two activities you assist while at home. (Learner responds)

READING ALOUD

Read the passage below aloud to your teacher

Once upon a time, there was a big fat pig. It was hungry all the time. It ate everything. Its stomach was big. The big fat pig met a sheep and said, "I am hungry, I can eat food." "You cannot eat me" said the sheep and she ran away. The pig was too big to run after the sheep. The pig was very sad and cried loudly. "Help me my stomach is empty." There was nobody to respond to him.

SECTION B COMPREHENSION

Read the story below and then answer the questions that follow.

The little boy brought all his friends to the magic tree where they had the best party ever. The friends had to thank him for the happy moment.
