Read the passage below and then answer questions 6 -9

Grade Six learners of Juhudi Primary School had just come back to school from the Easter holiday. Learning had not started yet so they kept themselves busy sharing their holiday experiences.

Mwanzia, the class prefect, stood up in front of the class and began to share his experience.

"I had a very busy holiday. My grandfather owns four cows, two of which have calves. Since I learnt milking when I was in Grade Four, I helped my grandfather while my elder brother fed the calves and collected trash around the compound"

Before Mwanzia finished his holiday experience, Mr. Okuku, our classteacher, came to class and began calling the class register. After he was done, he told us to visit the school library to read materials of our choice.
