Read the passage and answer the questions below

Long time ago there lived two animals. They were great friends. These animals lived in the same house; they were fox and leopard. Each had two cubs. They shared what they got together with their children. One day there was a famine in their village.

They did not have anything to feed their children. Fox decided to go to a neighbouring village to look for food. His cubs were left with leopard. After three days he came back and found no one was in the house even his children. He started searching for them but did not find them. He was so disappointed.
