

ENGLISH 2

MARKING SCHEME

1. Read the passage below and then answer the questions that follow. (20mrks)
- (a)
- The writer was confused and troubled that he not see the joy of living.√1
 - She could not sleep at night nor relax by day.√1
 - The writer was threatening her husband career.√1
 - Her own life was also threaten.√1
 - Threaten her children endowment of happy normal life.√1
- (5mrks)
- (b) The insecurities and uncertainties of the re adjustment period. (2mrks)
- (c) It is ironical that the writer plans for her children's husband and everything else but herself.
- (3mrks)
- MUST BRING OUT CONTRAST)
- (d) She was assisted by the mother who challenged her to get out of bed and fight for all she red.
- (2mrks)
- ks)
- (.e) - She tells her parents to go back home.
- She took and started to take care of her two younger children.
 - She slept well, began to eat better.
 - She forced herself to work.
 - She gathered her children together and join her husband in their new home.
- (f) One grows stronger and stronger and walks up with joy of planning for a new day ahead. Another benefit is that the writer has a successful husband, a beautiful home and healthy children. One also has a peace of mind.
- (4mrks)
- The River and the Source Extract.
- (a) Just before this extract
- i. Owour Kembo returns from his journey to find an empty house.
 - ii. He finds out what had happened from the neighbours and his children.
 - iii. He gets very angry, and locks himself up in his "Simba".
 - iv. He calls the council of 'Jodongo' to convene the following day.
- (1x4=4mrks)
- (b) One theme;
- Traditional√1mrk-" That her traditional is maintained and protected by 'Were' forbid my body can only lie in state in her house before I am buried on the right hand side of her hut?"√2mrks.
- (c) A mikai was the center post that held a man's hut
- If a husband died his body would lie in state in the mika's house before he was buried on the right handside of her hut.
 - She is the one who saves a man from the follies and stupidity of youth.
- (d) (i) Stylistic devices.

Imagery – Metaphors – Do you not know that a man's Mikai is the greatest jewel that adorns compound?

Effect – shows how a mikai was held in high esteem.

- (ii) Dialogue – “Father's,” countered Owour,
“I already have an heir and”

Effects it creates interest/makes the study interesting.

- (iii) Use of local dialect – “Misumba” –meaning a bachelor effect; shows the setting of the novel.

- (iv) Use of rhetorical question- But can a house be built with only one pole however strong it is.

Effect– to show that importance of many children.

(Mark any two styles, 1mrk id, 1mrk, illust)

- (e) Character traits.

- (i) Chief Owuor

Wise – he realizes that the old geezers were going to give him a hard time so he changes his tactics.

(Any other relevant trait)

- (ii) Oyier

Persuasive – Tries to persuade the chief that he should take a second wife since his first wife has left him “we beg you to take a second wife.”

- (f) Chief was under pressure to marry another wife; when his mother put pressure on him, he adamantly refuses.

- (g) That if a man dies his body could only lie in state in the Mika's house before he was buried on the right hand side of the hut.

- (h) Meaning of words

- a. Old geezers –old men
b. Sagaciously – wisely.

3. (a) It is praise poem ✓ 1 possession of a bag full of money 1mrk

(Any other relevant illustration)

- (b) Features of style;

- (i) Repetition – oh elephant

Effect-to emphasize

- (ii) Simile – huge as a hill

To emphasize on the large size of the elephant

- (iii) Authorial intrusion – I have fled to my father for refuge.

- Reinforce the people have for the elephant.

- (c) The elephant is portrayed as mighty /powerful/ferociously /any other relevant trait) 1mrk

- He who tears man like a garment 1mrk

(Any other relevant illus)

- (d) Persona's attitude:

Admiration 1mrk who single handed causes a tremor in a dense tropical forest 1mrk

- (e) Economic activities

- (i) Hunting ✓1mrk – the hunters boast 1mrk

- (ii) Farming 1mrk –palm fruits, palm oil. 1mrk

(f) The main theme: Human –animal conflict. (1mrk)

“The sight of whom cause people to stampede. (1mrk)

(g) Problems:

(i) Language barrier if conducted outside your community.

(ii) Unwillingness of the resources people

4. (a) Grammar

(3mrks)

1. (a) (i) The warrior that was mutilated by the lion is recuperating from the attack.

(ii) This is the mother whose son won the jackpot.

(iii) He is the engineer that I told you about

(b) (i) He bought a large ,blue pretty cotton dress as a Christmas gift for his mother.

(ii) The young short hand some son is the King’s only heir.

(iii) Let us take a seat at the oral beautiful mahogany table.

(c) (i) She doesn’t need to see a doctor, does she?

(ii) We should mind others, shouldn’t we.

(iii)Keep quiet, will you?

(d) (i) The ODM and the government ought forget the past so that the country can move forward.

(ii) The president said there will be nothing will be left to chance in the forget against corruption

(iii) Nyambwa is (be completely different from something or someone else.

(iv) He is one liked very much and is treated well by someone) of the administration (4mrks)

(e) (i) The principal was ordered to close down the school.

(ii) A steering committee has been set up the government to investigate the violence.

(iii) His good deeds were applauded.

(iv)The pavement was scrubbed yesterday.

(v) A bore hole was sunk by the a spring MP

(f) 1st meaning – the current MP 9 the one in power)

2nd – the one sitting. (5mrks)